

What is it

It's a product brokerage and internet marketing company, where an individual can own their own internet based franchise, follow a proven business plan and earn a significant secondary income without interfering with what they are currently doing.

"2 Minute Commercial"

This corporation has developed a new business venture. We like to equate it to what happened in the 30's with direct sales, in the 40's Franchising emerged, the 50's MLM emerged, the 60's catalog sales, the 70's direct mail, in the 80's infomercials emerged, and the 90's was the internet.. This is a new market form. If I were to tell you about Franchising in the 1940's, you'd have no idea what I was talking about, but today you do. If I told you about an infomercial in the 1960's, you'd have no idea what I was talking about. We have identified the next marketing trend and market form in the country, It's extremely powerful. It taps into the power of direct sales, home shopping, discount buying, networking and franchising while eliminating their weaknesses. We're looking for two key people to work in this area. We have a product brokerage company that identifies marketing trends. We get exclusive rights to superior products and use this internet marketing concept to merchandise the product on a mass scale. It is 90% visual we need to get together over charts and diagrams.
