

Hi _____ this is _____ you remember the business I was telling you about, well I have Andy Docos on the phone. (Stop Talking) (now Andy takes the call)

Yeah, I guess _____ was telling you a little bit about a business venture I'm expanding into the area. (Caller may say yeah but he didn't tell me much) That's great that's why we're calling you just to give you a little something to sink your teeth into, you see I'm in the product brokerage and internet marketing business and what we do is we train people how to own an internet based franchise that they can manage from home and develop a significant secondary income along side what you're currently doing, I have to tell you we're working on a major expansion into the _____ market and after talking to _____ and telling him a little about what we were looking for, your name came up. He spoke very highly of you and we'd like to figure out a time we can show you what's going on because _____ wanted to give you one of the first opportunities to see this business venture because it stands to be an incredibly lucrative project. I can guarantee you won't be disappointed, in fact I think you will be quite pleased that _____ kept you in mind. We'll see you _____
